2. Character of event:

RALLY „STETTINER HAFF“ is a cross-border consistency rally for automobiles and motorcycles which includes special stages that do not require any permits of sports authorities. During the entire course the participants will not drive any high speed stages. You will ride only on paved roads and paths of which approx. 25 km are made of cobblestones.

A time scoring is not implemented in this rally.

The total length of the rally is approx. 280 km.

3. Participation permit:

Participation in this rally is open to automobiles and motorcycles, including vintage cars according to the class classification.

The total number of participating vehicles is limited to 50. These have to be registered for public road traffic in their holder's country of residence or carry a valid licence plate.

The drivers of the respective vehicles have to hold a driving licence corresponding to the vehicle participating. The driving licence is to be shown during the documents' verification. Corresponding to the number of seats in each participating vehicle, these may be taken by several persons.

4. Classification:

Class 1 Cars until 1970 models

Extra Class for Motorcycles

Class 2 Cars from 1971 models

Extra Class for Lorries

The final admittance to participate is reserved to the organizer and is made on the number of entries received. During the event, each vehicle must carry a competitor's plate at the front and a clearly visible start number on the driver's and co-driver's door. Under no circumstances may the competitor plate and start numbers cover the official licence plate, not even partially. The start numbers and the competitor sign will be provided by the organiser.

The organiser is not liable for any damage to the vehicle caused by the affixing of stickers.

5. Course of the event:

The participants receive their rally documents on June, 13th, 2025, between 5:00 and 6:00 pm and on June, 14th, 2025, between 7:30 and 8.30 am inside the OPEL Autohaus Aßmann, Ueckermünder Str. 36, in 17367 Eggesin, Germany (Verification of documents).

In order of their starting position, each team receives one participant's plate, one starting number, one road book, maps and, in case of requirement, additional pieces of information.

The start of the first vehicle takes place at 9:01 am.

6. Scoring:

The winner in each class is the team with the lowest amount of penalty points. In case of equal scores the results of the special stages in their chronological order will decide on the winner.

7. Prizes:

The top three teams in each class will be awarded cups (driver and co-driver). The organiser reserves the right to award further prizes.

8. Award ceremony:

The award ceremony will take place on June, 14th, 2025, at 7:30 pm inside the "be free" sports centre in Stettiner Straße 46b, 17367 Eggesin, Germany. The award ceremony forms part of the rally event. All trophies and prizes will be awarded during the ceremony and will not be sent to those prizewinners absent.

9. Registrations:

Deadline for registrations is April, 13th, 2025, and are to be submitted to the organizer!

Registrations must be submitted via the official registration form. The registration form has to be signed by the driver and co-driver. Registrations sent online via e-mail do not require a signature, these will be obtained during the document inspection. Registration turns valid only on receipt of the corresponding registration fee via cheque or bank transfer. Registration will be confirmed after the registration deadline.

The date of the postmark/e-mail receipt applies. Entries must be sent to the following address:

Rallye Trans e.V. Eggesin
Karl-Marx-Straße 73 g
D-17367 Eggesin

Registration is recommended via e-mail, see button „Send your registration“ on the online registration form (you need Acrobat Reader, free download on the internet)

10. Course regulations:

During the entire event, drivers must strictly adhere to the road traffic regulations of the countries they are travelling through. Any violation of these regulations and any involvement in a traffic accident will result in disqualification.

On the route there will be known passage controls (DK) and unknown passage controls (UDK). Skipping DKs will be penalised with penalty points. In addition, there will be approx. 3 constancy tests. The participants will be provided with a roadbook containing the stages and scores before the start. The participants themselves are responsible for the entries in the roadbook and their correctness. Any corrections or changes on the boarding card will result in disqualification from the competition unless confirmed by the responsible sports supervisor!

11. Insurance:

Proof of motor vehicle liability insurance (green insurance card) must be presented by all participants.

12. Organizer's and participant's responsibility and waiver of liability:

Responsibility:

Each participant (applicant, driver, co-driver, car owner and car holder) joins this event at their own risk. They are responsible of any damage caused and provoked by themselves and their vehicles which are subject to civil and penal law.

Waiver of liability:

By submitting the registration form each participant (competitor, driver, co-driver, owner and holder), waive any right of action or recourse against the organiser, its representatives, stewards or helpers, against authorities and any other persons connected with the organisation of the event for all accidents or damage suffered in connection with the event. The organizer reserves his right to execute modifications of the invitation which are ordered by authorities, or result from force majeure or become necessary because of safety reasons, as well as to cancel parts of the event if this becomes necessary due to extraordinary circumstances, all without assuming any liability for damages. This agreement comes into effect for all participants upon submission of their registration form to the organizer. The organizer concludes an organizer liability insurance. By submitting the registration form, the participant recognises this invitation to tender as well as all implementing regulations yet to be issued without restriction. Moreover, each participant declares that they waive any recourse to a civil commercial or penal court.

General:

Driver and co-driver obligate themselves to follow the organizer's, the rally management's as well as their representatives. By the entry of the registration form, driver and co-driver agree – in the name of the sponsoring bodies – to the following:

- The organizer is entitled to record any activities connected with the event and to broadcast these via radio, television or other media. No claims or whatsoever derive from this action towards the organizer or the broadcasting companies;
- The organizer is entitled to forward the participants' addresses to photographers on their request so that these may send their photos to the participants.

The copyright of the entire event is property of the organizer.

Additions to the invitation:

The regulations of this invitation may be subject to change or addition if required. Any amendment or additional regulation will be published in numbered and dated bulletins which form an integral part of these regulations. These bulletins will be published on the official notice board or directly to the participants, who will confirm this by signature, except in the case of actual impossibility during the course of the event.

Application and public display of the invitation:

During the course of the event, the organisation and rally management is responsible to apply the regulations of the invitation present.
